STANDING ORDER

ORDER

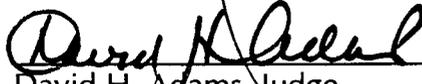

At NORFOLK, in said District, this 1st day of September, 1994.

It appearing expeditious and that the concept of judicial economy will be furthered,
IT IS ACCORDINGLY

ORDERED that, effective from the date of this Order, upon the proper completion and filing of a Certificate in one of the forms attached hereto, along with the accompanying documents required therein, a creditor in a no-asset case may be added without a hearing in a pending case or the reopening of a closed case.

CERTIFICATE
 for Adding Creditors to Schedules

The undersigned member of the Bar of this Court, who represents the debtor(s) herein, hereby certifies as follows:

1. That undersigned has made a diligent search and has determined that:
 - a. The above-captioned case was filed under or converted to Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code ("Chapter 7") and remains a case under Chapter 7 or remained a case under Chapter 7 until closing;
 - b. After filing under or conversion to Chapter 7, a notice of no dividend, contained in the notice of the first meeting of creditors, was sent to creditors listed on the schedules, informing them that they need not file claims in the above-captioned case; and
 - c. The Chapter 7 trustee filed a report of no distribution in the above-captioned case, and since that filing, no further assets of the assets of the estate have been administered in the above-captioned case.

2. That attached hereto is an affidavit signed by the debtor(s), stated that:
 - a. The debtor(s) did not intentionally omit the creditor(s) listed below from the scheduled filed in the above-captioned case; and
 - b. The debtor(s) did not intend to hinder, delay, or defraud such creditor(s).

3. That the purpose of filing this Certificate is to amend the schedules in order to add only those pre-petition creditor(s) listed on the attached sheet. In addition, due notice has been sent to such creditor(s), and no response has been received by the debtor(s) within the thirty (30) day notice period.
