RE: INCREASES TO VARIOUS MISCELLANEOUS FEE SCHEDULES (INFORMATION)

At its September 2011 session, the Judicial Conference approved changes to the miscellaneous fee schedules for the courts of appeals, district courts, bankruptcy courts, the Court of Federal Claims, and the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1913, 1914, 1930, 1926, and 1932, respectively. These changes will become effective November 1, 2011.

In 1996, the Court Administration and Case Management Committee, which has the responsibility to make recommendations regarding the Judiciary's fees, agreed to review the miscellaneous fee schedules periodically to determine the need for inflationary adjustments. At the Committee's June 2011 meeting, it recommended that the miscellaneous fees be adjusted for inflation (compounded), noting that it had been eight years since they were last adjusted. The Committee, however, decided not to recommend increases to a small number of miscellaneous fees (e.g., fees that are linked to the statutory fees prescribed by Congress, fees that are determined locally, and the appellate filing fee, which was recently increased to $450). The Committee's recommendations were approved by the Judicial Conference in September. The attached charts detail the increased amounts for the various miscellaneous fee schedules.

If you have any questions concerning the adjusted fees, please contact Mark Miskovsky, Deputy Chief of the Court Administration Policy Staff, at 202-502-1560.
